

Academic Calendar
WEEK 11

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3

1. Professor Arthur Anderson will join us today!
2. Peer review of Organizational Background information
 - Read aloud with peers
 - Consider the review questions on p. 97 and peer review
2. Revise, if time.
3. Organization interview contact—any takers?
4. Return to the Evaluation Component, p. 62.
 - Consider this central question: How will you evaluate the project your organization proposes to do?
 - Consider how to respond to questions 1-7.
5. Drafting: Using the sample evaluation component on p. 63-64, begin draft an Evaluation Plan:
 - Evaluation Plan (750 words in total)
 - Please tell the venerable Pepper Foundation how you will know if your project was successful. Explain how you will evaluate the impact of your work.
 - Aim for 300-400 words in class.
6. Super Peppers!

ASSIGNMENT:

1. Come to class with 500-600 thoughtful words of the Evaluation component for peer review.
2. JORUNAL 15: Read: WG Step 8, Budget: Be ready to share 4 big takeaways from the chapter next class. Record these takeaways as the journal.
3. JORUNAL 16: Read through ALL of your components so far and make notes on improvements and revisions you're intending. Please distill those notes (bullet points can work) into a journal entry.
