

In my time

Insensitive
I want to finish their sentence
Spit it out, be concise
Use your words

Your words
Have power
Selfishness seeps through the cracks but they take their time, as they should
I shouldn't rush

I wish I didn't rush
I could enjoy the moment even so, I jump to the next

Jumping to conclusions has always been a skill
Even better at assuming the worst
Assume the worst now, prepare for later
The later let-down, less pain

Painfully honest,
With myself and others
To hold those accountable,

Who am I to dictate

Impatient
Let me finish my sentence
My words have power
I should take my time
I should enjoy the moment

It's a work in progress
I think I'll take my time
