

WEEK 7

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25

1. Freewrite
2. JOURNAL # 12 playback—Turtle and Carr
3. Carr leftovers: Foreman? Taylorism? A/D/C passages
4. Barclay's Formula, start (working with 2 sources) with HANDOUT

Assignment:

1. JOURNAL # 13: Following the Barclay's paragraph model, compose a 200-300 word paragraph placing a portion/passage of Turtle into conversation with Carr. Remember to offer some kind of framework (CLAIM) to guides us as well as your analysis.

Time on task: 60 min

2. JOURNAL # 14: TS/IS "Starting with What Others Say" pp. 19-29. Respond to the text: What is interesting, helpful, curious, insightful about the chapter?

Time on task: 45 min

3. GET A JUMP ON NEXT WEEL: Read and annotate: "In Defense of Distraction" by Sam Anderson HANDOUT

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28

1. Freewrite
2. JOURNAL # 14 playback, TS/IS "Starting with What Others Say" pp. 19-29.
3. JOURNAL # 13 playback: Barclay's paras—SAMPLES: placing work in conversation....
4. Dip into "In Defense of Distraction" by Sam Anderson if time.

Assignment:

1. Read and annotate: "In Defense of Distraction" by Sam Anderson HANDOUT

Time on task 90 min

2. JOURNAL # 15: Anderson journal. Identify 2 passages you find centrally important to Anderson's essay. For your response, start with naming page and para, and then indicate if you agree, disagree, or have a response that is complicated. How do YOU situate yourself with the idea/s Anderson presents? Then, for each A,D,C, respond with 150-200 words explaining why.

Time on task 45 min

We'll unpack our second major writing assignment next week!