

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian

Your Name: Liz

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
- Concluding synthesis

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects)
- Enunciation & Volume
- Use of time (pace, duration) good!
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

I liked the photo of you working

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

Everything looked good, sizing, image quality

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

General Comment?

- I liked how you included what a finding aid is
- I liked how you have a brief history of scrapbooks

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian

Your Name: Frank

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
- Concluding synthesis

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects)
- Enunciation & Volume
- Use of time (pace, duration)
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

- scrapbooking history! add exs. of commercial editions?
 or cover of Lowd's?
 "Common Issues" running long - still @ it @ ~9 mins. **

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

- left align text since using bullets
- Are you using same font throughout? Dbl. check

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

General Comment?

good images, examples (eg. slide 2) ^{finding and}

v. good style of presenting - conveys knowledge ^{assurance}

- Is everything worth saving?

- definitely get to the "why" ✓

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian

Your Name: Elias George Nawfel

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion ✓
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim ✓
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail ✓
- Concluding synthesis ✓

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material ✓
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects) ✓
- Enunciation & Volume ✓
- Use of time (pace, duration) ✓
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions ✓

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

None

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

None

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

None

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

None

General Comment?

Super easy to follow, really great graphics. Project kept me engaged.

Great job! Just cut some stuff.

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian

Your Name: Zak Ramos

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- ✓ Framing/Intro for Discussion
- ✓ Clarity of Purpose/Claim
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
- Concluding synthesis

Presentation

- ✓ Organization & Signposting of Material
- ✓ Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects)
- ✓ Enunciation & Volume
- Use of time (pace, duration)
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

None

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

None

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

None.

General Comment?

Solid project flows well, easy to understand

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian N.

Your Name: WW

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim → good!
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
- Concluding synthesis

good!

very good!

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material → good!
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects) → great!
- Enunciation & Volume Good!
- Use of time (pace, duration) → too long
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

I liked seeing examples of the archival documents. They were strong visual additions.

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

I'd like to hear more about Lowd. What else do we know about her? Knowing more about the person behind the Scrapbook would be cool.

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

N/A, looked good to me!

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

No errors, but id still like to hear more about Ms. Lowd.

General Comment?

Really cool project! just need to condense stuff!
presentation looks great as well!

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Nunez

Your Name: McRobben

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
- Concluding synthesis

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects) ✓
- Enunciation & Volume
- Use of time (pace, duration)
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

Swabbook HR, working on memory or consistency

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

Swabbook owner

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

Ø

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

Ø

General Comment?

Really cool

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter:

Vincent Nunez

Your Name:

Kayleigh Duncan

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
- Concluding synthesis

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects)
- Enunciation & Volume
- Use of time (pace, duration)
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

Why does this matter to you? Why are resources like this important to protect?

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

Why in particular did you pick Darath's Scrapbook what resonated with you the most from the Scrapbook

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

What's your favorite part of this research

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

General Comment?

Loved Learning about the history of Scrapbooking and the issues with restoring them. I found your pres really interesting keep it up!

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian

Your Name: Sarah Bedore

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

Framing/Intro for Discussion
Clarity of Purpose/Claim
Use of explanatory/supporting Detail
Concluding synthesis

Presentation

Organization & Signposting of Material
Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects)
Enunciation & Volume
Use of time (pace, duration)
Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

Issues within Scrapbook

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

Condense information

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

~~Images of Journal~~

General Comment?

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter:

Vivian

Your Name:

Maeve

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion ✓
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim ✓
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail ✓
- Concluding synthesis ✓

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material ✓
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects) ✓
- Enunciation & Volume ✓
- Use of time (pace, duration) ✓
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions ✓

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

✓

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

✓

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

✓

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

✓

General Comment?

I really enjoyed your presentation

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian Nunez

Your Name: Evan Glynn

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

Framing/Intro for Discussion create a title
Clarity of Purpose/Claim Good
Use of explanatory/supporting Detail Good
Concluding synthesis Good

Presentation

Organization & Signposting of Material Good
Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects) Good Liked the visuals
Enunciation & Volume Good
Use of time (pace, duration) good to long
Ability to respond to/engage with questions Good

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

Finding aids talking about owners of items

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

Explained well

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

General Comment?

Like the idea of this

Like the questions to consider

LIL 420 Presentation Peer Review

Presenter: Vivian

Your Name: Sarah Bourdeau

As you listen to your peers' presentations, use this sheet to jot down areas of strength and interest as well as questions that may come up.

For a quick look, circle any area that needs work, then use the questions below to explain what you're noticing.

Content

- Framing/Intro for Discussion
- Clarity of Purpose/Claim ✓
- Use of explanatory/supporting Detail ✓
- Concluding synthesis

Presentation

- Organization & Signposting of Material ✓ well layed-out
- Use of visuals (ePort, slides, physical objects) ✓ nice
- Enunciation & Volume - good
- Use of time (pace, duration)
- Ability to respond to/engage with questions

What's an idea or image or comment that stands out to you? When the presentation ends, what are you thinking about?

Love all the images - helps contextualize your physical good organization of info. timeline! (possibly make font bigger here) + work the history

What would you want to hear more about? Raise a question, make a connection to another text/idea/experience and ask the presenter to comment or extend their thinking/approach.

Jot down anything you heard or saw that needs revision or a touch up before it goes live:

Anything amiss with the mechanics: typos, text size, image quality?
good font + image sizing - engaging!

What about content? Any factual errors, underdeveloped ideas/points/areas, lack of focus? Does the development match the stated focus? At what point, if any, does your attention slip?

General Comment?

Nice work! very cool project